APPLICATION DEADLINE: JUNE 10, 2009
Eligible: Females and Males 12 years and up.

Typical Daily Schedule

Mornings: 3 hour vaulting session. Jumping and imitative drill techniques Afternoon: Classroom instruction on the technique and safety of the pole vault along with vault-related issues and safety. Evening: 3 hour vaulting session. Jumping and imitative drill techniques followed by further classroom instruction. These sessions will be focused on individual attention and a variety of activities. The goal of the camp is to teach the vaulter, no matter the level of expertise, all of the components of the pole vault including safety. Included with this will be videotaping of performance and other recreational activities. We expect the vaulter to not only learn, but to have fun!

PVEI POLE VAULT CAMP APPROACH

The PVEI Pole Vault Camp follows the teachings of the USA Track & Field National Pole Vault Development and High Performance Committee that was created in 1988 to re-establish pole vaulting in the United States to be the leader in the world in the event. This camp is being conducted by the coaches who formerly coached at the Slippery Rock Pole Vault Camps under the tutelage and support of Mark Hannay, and will present material that is sound, conservative, and recognized by the national pole vault committee in its library of articles, pvei.com

Camp Registration

A check for $150 down payment should accompany your PVEI registration form. The balance of your camp fee will be due at check-in on Saturday afternoon. PVEI CAMP INSTRUCTORS / TEACHERS

Robert Wahl has been a pole vault coach for the past twenty-two years and has been the Pennsylvania State Chairperson for USA Track & Field's National Pole Vault Development and High Performance Committee since 1997. He serves on the boards of the Pole Vault Safety Certification Board (pvscb.com) along with pvei.com. Coach Wahl currently is the pole vault coach for Altoona (PA) High School. At least one of the high school's vaulters have qualified for the PA state track and field meet each year since 1993 which includes two state champions and ten state medalists.

Marty Dahlman is the head boys track coach and head cross country at Watkins Memorial High School in Pataskala, Ohio (near Columbus), and has been there since 1978. Coach Dahlman has led his teams to 34 Conference Championships and over 120 invitational wins. In the pole vault Coach Dahlman has sent 20 vaulters to the state championships, with eight all Ohio vaulters. Coach Dahlman has served as the Pole Vault Safety Chairman for the Ohio Track Coaches Association for the past six years. He has conducted safety clinics all over the state, and wrote the current curriculum for pole vault education in Ohio.

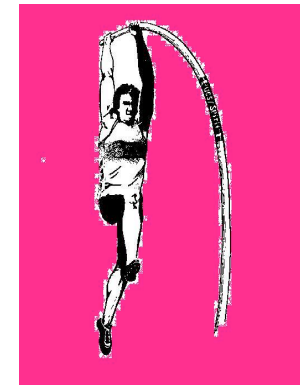

Tony Dodds is currently the pole vault coach at Wilson (PA) High School and has specialized in the event since 2000. During this time he has produced multiple county, district and state qualifiers. As a former pole vaulter at Penn State University, Coach Dodds vaulted 15'9". Coach Dodds has received his USATF Level 3 Coaching Qualification at the University of New Mexico in 2007.

CAMP DIRECTOR

Steve Shutt is in his third season as head track and field coach at Gettysburg College. Under Coach Shutt, the Bullets have had 15 individual conference champions and set 16 school records. Two athletes have qualified for the NCAA Division III National Championships and four have been named USTFCCCA Academic All-Americans.
